Sts. PETER and PAUL

-28/29 June 2014-

LITURGY of the WORD

First Reading: Acts 12:1-10

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

IN THOSE DAYS, King Herod laid hands upon some members of the church to harm them. He had James, the brother of John, killed by the sword, and when he saw that this was pleasing to the Jews, he proceeded to arrest Peter also. "It was the feast of Unleavened Bread." He had him taken into custody and put in prison under the guard of four squads of four soldiers each. He intended to bring him before the people after Passover. Peter thus was being kept in prison, but prayer by the church was fervently being made to God on his behalf. On the very night before Herod was to bring him to trial, Peter, secured by double chains, was sleeping between two soldiers, while outside the door guards kept watch on the prison. Suddenly the angel of the Lord stood by him and a light shone in the cell. He tapped Peter on the side and awakened him, saying, "Get up quickly." The chains fell from his wrists. The angel said to him, "Put on your belt and your sandals." He did so. Then he said to him, "Put on your cloak and follow me." So he followed him out, not realizing that what was happening through the angel was real; he thought he was seeing a vision. They passed the first guard, then the second, and came to the iron gate leading out to the city, which opened for them by itself. They emerged and made their way down an alley, and suddenly the angel left him. The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalms 34

R — The angel of the Lord will rescue those who fear him.

1. I will bless the Lord at all times;/ his praise shall ever be in my mouth./ Let my soul glory in the Lord;/ the lowly will hear me and be glad. (R)

2. Glorify the Lord with me,/ let us together extol his name./ I sought the Lord, and he answered me/ and delivered me from all my fears. (R)

PRAYER of THANKS [for the rain]

FATHER, we thank you for all your good gifts to us; for making this wonderful world; for calling us to be your holy people. We thank you for the rain you have given us. Help us to show our gratitude by sharing ourselves and our gifts with others. We thank and praise you through JESUS CHRIST, your Son, in the love and unity of your HOLY SPIRIT. Amen.

3. Look to him that you may be radiant with joy,/ and your faces may blush with shame./ When the poor one called out, the Lord heard,/ and from all his distress he saved him. (R)

4. The angel of the Lord encamps/ around those who fear him, and delivers them./ Taste and see how good the Lord is;/ blessed the man who takes refuge in him. (R)

Second Reading: 2Timothy 4:6-8, 17-18

A reading from the second Letter of Paul to Timothy

I, PAUL, am already being poured out like a libation, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have competed well; I have finished the race; I have kept the faith. From now on the crown of righteousness awaits me, which the Lord, the just judge, will award to me on that day, and not only to me, but to all who have longed for his appearance. The Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the proclamation might be completed and all the Gentiles might hear it. And I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from every evil threat and will bring me safe to his heavenly kingdom. To him be glory forever and ever. Amen. The word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation [Matthew 16:18]:

Alleluia! Alleluia! You are Peter and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it. Alleluia! Alleluia!

Gospel: Matthew 16:13-19

WHEN JESUS went into the region of Caesarea Philippi he asked his disciples, "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?" They replied, "Some say John the Baptist, others Elijah, still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets." He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Simon Peter said in reply, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." Jesus said to him in reply, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah. For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my heavenly Father. And so I say to you, you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven."

PRAYER for RAIN

Heavenly FATHER, maker of all things and protector of all your people: look upon us in your love and give us your help. Open the heavens for us and give us the rain we need. Teach us to live for you and to share your gifts with others. Ease our burdens, Father, and give us your strength. Hear us in our need for we come to you through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

NEWS & INFORMATION

This weekend: the annual PETER'S PENCE Collection will be conducted all over the world. In 1871, Pope Pius IX formalized the practice of lay members of the Roman Catholic Church – and "other persons of good will" – to provide financial support to the Roman See. The money collected is today used by the pope for philanthropic purposes.

From JOE...

FRUIT CAKE SUNDAY & PARISH PICNIC/4 MAY

You might ask, "How can a diabetic priest promote FRUIT CAKES when they are a poison and a hazard to health?" My response: "Speak for yourselves... they are beautiful!"

I am diabetic so I had only one slice of every fruit cake offered at the mass. Lewis Thatcher encourages me, "... in moderation, Joe!"

It was the coldest day in 6 years, I was told! But, thanks to those who helped me set-up at 6:00 am [some came at 7:00 am]: John Henderson; Bob McGuire; Mike Casey-Ransom; Tony Almoite; Gary Francisco; Rowel Gascon; Jimmy Tulabut; Robert Dizon; Albert Talampas. A lot more helped to clean-up and stow away things after the picnic.

John Henderson and Bob McGuire organised the BBQ; Ken Middleton organised the games; Dom Gibson set-up the PA System; Brian Baldwin was the emcee; thanks to the Inverell Fire Department for the electricity; the Macintyre Lions for their goodwill to set-up the Jumping Castle which was cancelled because of the wet and cold weather.

The PINAYS cooked the chicken [marinated by Robert and Suzette Dizon] and the spring rolls [donated by Anna Thivakon and Nhel Gascon]; thanks to those who donated items for the five [5] Lucky Door Prize Hampers; to the kids of Holy Trinity School who did face-painting.

Thanks to those who organised it all: Gloria Baldwin; Nola Turner; Maree Chie; the Middletons; and the other Parish FAMILY Group leaders and members; to Coleen and Bernie Graham who donated lollies; to Allan Kinnear who donated $ 50.

We will return to October! It turned out to be a very good parish day but more could have been there if the forecast was better. Many parishioners chickened out and were pessimistic about the prospect of a good day because they have no faith in the goodness of a GOD who responds to the prayers of his Parish Priest.

Those who trusted were rewarded... as we now all know.

FAREWELL FOR ROMA FENWICK/10 MAY

It was a sad event; but a happy one knowing that Inverell is a lucky parish to have had a parishioner like ROMA FENWICK. She was embarrassed and did not approve the hype. But it was more for us, I thought... to be able to say "THANK YOU" sincerely.

Patsy Armstrong, Chair of the Parish PASTORAL Council, spoke on behalf of the parish; and Robin Kenny, on behalf of the Society of Saint Vincent de Paul [Brian Baldwin was not going to be there because of the big auction in Delungra that day]. It was too late when I saw him: Rob was already at the sanctuary.

Anyway: a presentation was made [bouquet of flowers and a print of Joey Velasco's painting called: "ALAY" <OFFERING>] by Patsy and Brian. They were not adequate and expensive but they symbolised our gratitude as a parish to ROMA FENWICK who is the first and, to date, the only recipient of the Bene Merenti Medal from the Pope in Inverell.

Thanks to the Parish PASTORAL Council for organising the cuppa after the mass; and to all those who brought a plate to share.
