The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ King of the Universe, commonly referred to as the Feast of Christ the King. The feast was instituted in 1925 by Pope Pius XI.

HAPPY CELEBRATION

Please sign the sheet at the church door if you intend to participate.

In the next few weeks, Federal Parliament will be debating legislation to legalise same-sex marriage. It is important that this legislation includes extensive protection for religious freedom as promised by both Malcolm Turnbull and Bill Shorten during the Marriage Survey. Please write to your local Federal politicians to ensure they understand the need to strengthen protection for religious freedom in legislation before Christmas. An information brief on the issue is available at <https://> November is the month of the Holy Souls in Purgatory, when we traditionally pray for our relatives and friends who have died.

November Mass Envelopes are available at the Church doors. May the faithful departed Rest in Peace... Amen
