OUR VISION AND OUR MISSION
 We as a PARISH, try to live out our
VISION: To continually form a Christ-centred community based on the Gospel Values expressed through SERVICE in peace, justice and love.
MISSION: To know Christ more, His life and His teachings. To imbibe Christ's message of love and service. To try to share generously what graces and blessings we have and to be instruments of the Gospel message.

If you are unwell please stay at home.
If you require Home Communion contact the office.

JANUARY 17TH - SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - YEAR B

"In temptations against chastity, the spiritual masters advise us, not so much to contend with the bad thought, as to turn the mind to some spiritual, or, at least, indifferent object. It is useful to combat bad thoughts face to face, but not thoughts of impurity." - St Alphonsus Liguori

Answering God's call

When He calls us do we answer Him? Do we recognise His voice? Do we listen for it in our hearts? Do we answer promptly when he calls us, saying, 'Speak, Lord, your servant is listening,' or, do we say, 'Not now, Lord, I'm too busy. Call me later,?' God is always seeking to speak with us. Let us listen for His voice and answer Him with the eager desire to please like that of a loving child when he calls.

Reflection

Our Lord's great command was: "Follow Me!" By calling others to Himself, He introduced the idea that man should have charge over man. It was a prolongation of the principle of His Incarnation: He Who is God would teach and redeem and sanctify through the human nature which He had taken from Mary. But He would work also through other human natures, starting with those first twelve whom He called to be His followers. It was not to be the angels who would administer to men: the government of the Father would be placed in the hands of human beings. Such is the meaning of His apostolic call to the twelve.

One is struck at once by the gigantic aim He proposed for His followers, namely, the moral conquest of the whole world; they were to be the "light of the world," the "salt of the earth," and the "city that cannot be hid." He bade rather insignificant men to take an almost cosmic view of their mission, for on them would He build His kingdom. These chosen lights were to cast their rays over the rest of humanity, in all nations.

The word Cephas meant "rock"; we do not get the full flavour of it in English, because Peter, the proper name, is not the same as our word "rock." The words were identical in the Aramaic which Our Blessed Lord spoke, just as they are in French, where the proper name Pierre is the same as pierre, or rock. In Scripture, whenever God changed the name of a man, it was to raise him to a higher dignity and role in the community to which he belonged. Our Lord might have been saying to Peter: "You are impulsive and fickle and unreliable, but one day all this will be changed; you will be called by a name that no one would dare give you now - Rock Man."
Venerable Archbishop Fulton Sheen

PRAYER TO GOD FOR HELP

God our Father, Creator of the world, almighty and merciful, out of love for us you sent your Son into the world as the doctor of our souls and bodies. Look upon your children who, in this difficult time of confusion and dismay, turn to you seeking strength, salvation and relief. Deliver us from illness and fear, heal our sick, comfort their families, give wisdom to our rulers, energy and reward to our doctors, nurses and volunteers, and eternal life to the dead. Do not abandon us in the moment of trial but deliver us from all evil. We ask this through the intercession of our Blessed Mother and Saint Joseph, through Christ our Lord. Amen.
