St Joseph Prayer for Protection

Gracious St Joseph, protect me and my family from all evil as you did the Holy Family. Kindly keep us ever united in the love of Christ, ever fervent in imitation of the virtue of our Blessed Lady, your sinless spouse, and always faithful in devotion to you. Amen.

Prayer to the Sacred Heart of Jesus

O most holy heart of Jesus, fountain of every blessing, I adore You, I love You, and with lively sorrow for my sins I offer You this poor heart of mine. Make me humble, patient, pure, and wholly obedient to Your will. Grant, Good Jesus, that I may live in You and for You. Protect me in the midst of danger. Comfort me in my afflictions. Give me health of body, assistance in my temporal needs, Your blessing on all that I do, and the grace of a holy death. Amen

Prayer to the Immaculate Heart of Mary

O Mary, full of goodness, under the protection of your Immaculate Heart, we seek refuge. Holy Mother of God, hear our prayers and deliver us from all dangers. Help us overcome our trials, and be faithful to your teachings, so that we can remain, Glorious and Blessed Virgin, true children of God. Amen

Reflection The best way to understand that the Church is not just an institution is to understand it as the body of Christ. That's the way St Paul understood the Church, and that's the way we have it in sacred scripture. Our Blessed Lord says all through the gospels that he is going to establish a new body, a new qahal, a new people of God. After all, when people are united for a given purpose, they are a body. Now our Lord did not use the word "body" precisely because his own physical body was before everyone. He used the word "kingdom" because that was a word the Jews could understand. But when St Paul was talking to the pagans, he had to use a word which was more understandable, namely, "body". Our Lord communicated exactly the same idea. He said that the new people he would unite with himself would be related to him as branches and vine. He said, "I am the vine, you are the branches." The truth that he had, he said he would give to them. "My truth I give to you. My power I give you." Also he communicated the power to forgive sins. Our Blessed Lord said that he would develop and form a new body which would be very small at first like a mustard seed, and then it would grow and spread throughout the entire world. It will not be a moral body or a political body, so he has to give it a new name. The name that has been given to it through the centuries is "mystical" to indicate that the unity that binds it together does not come from men but from His spirit, from Himself. That was why there had to be a Pentecost: to put a soul into this body.
