SEPTEMBER 12TH - TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - YEAR B

"He who, when tempted, makes the Sign of the Cross with devotion, makes Hell tremble and Heaven rejoice." - St John Vianney

Act of Spiritual Communion

O Jesus, I believe that You are truly present in the Blessed Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I desire You in my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. As though You were already there, I embrace You and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Anima Christi

Soul of Christ, sanctify me. Body of Christ, save me. Blood of Christ, inebriate me. Water from the side of Christ, wash me. Passion of Christ, strengthen me. O good Jesus, hear me. Within Your wounds hide me. Never let me be separated from thee. From the evil one protect me. At the hour of my death, call me; and bid me come to thee. That with Your saints & angels, I may praise You forever & ever. Amen.

St Ignatius of Loyola

The Exaltation of the Holy Cross invites us to "glory in the cross of Our Lord Jesus Christ, in whom is our salvation, life, and resurrection, through whom we are saved and delivered."

May Christ be in our mind, in our lips, in our heart, in our actions, in our life. Let us not forget to follow Christ and to live His life carrying His Cross and all that it entails, not with mere resignation, but with joyful acceptance and for love.

Prayer: O Heavenly Father, who willed that Your Only Begotten Son should undergo the Cross to save the human race, grant, we pray, that we who have known His mystery on earth may merit the grace of his redemption in heaven. Through Our Lord Jesus Christ Your Son, who lives and reigns with You, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, One God, forever and ever. Amen.

THE SEVEN SORROWS OF MARY

- THE PROPHECY OF SIMEON
- THE FLIGHT INTO EGYPT
- LOSING JESUS IN THE TEMPLE AT JERUSALEM
- MEETING JESUS ON THE WAY TO CALVARY
- THE CRUCIFIXION STANDING AT FOOT OF THE CROSS
- THE PIETA RECEIVING HIS BODY
- PLACING HER DIVINE SON IN THE TOMB

Prayer to Our Lady of Sorrows

O Mother of Sorrows, by the anguish and love with which you stood at the Cross of Jesus, stand by me in my last agony. To your maternal heart I commend the last three hours of my life. Offer these hours to the Eternal Father in union with the agony of our dearest Lord, in atonement for my sins. Offer to the Eternal Father the most precious Blood of Jesus, mingled with your tears on Calvary, that I may obtain the grace of receiving Holy Communion with the most perfect love and contrition before my death, and that I may breathe forth my soul in the adorable presence of Jesus. Dearest Mother, when the moment of my death has at last come, present me as your child to Jesus. Ask Him to forgive me for having offended Him, for I knew not what I did. Beg Him to receive me into His Kingdom of glory, to be united with Him forever. Amen.

St Joseph Prayer for Protection

Gracious St Joseph, protect me and my family from all evil as you did the Holy Family. Kindly keep us ever united in the love of Christ, ever fervent in imitation of the virtue of our Blessed Lady, your sinless spouse, and always faithful in devotion to you. Amen.

Child Protection Sunday Prayer

Precious Lord, we pray that you are our children's refuge and fortress, the God in whom they can and should put their trust. We pray that no evil shall be allowed to befall them, no plague come near them. We rejoice for you have commanded Your angels concerning our children to guard them in all of their ways. Amen.

Reflection

Our Lord said nothing openly of His death while His Apostles believed Him only to be man; but once He was acknowledged to be God, He spoke openly of His death. This was in order that His death might be viewed in its proper light as a sacrifice for sins. Peter, puffed up with the authority that had been given him, took Our Lord aside and began rebuking Him. The Divinity of Christ, he would accept; the suffering Christ, he would not. The rock had become a stumbling stone; Peter would have a half Christ for the moment, the Divine Christ, but not the Redeemer Christ. But a half Christ was no Christ. He would have the Christ Whose glory was announced at Bethlehem, but not the full-orbed Christ, Who would be a sacrifice for sins on the Cross. Peter thought, if He was the Son of God, why should He suffer? Satan on the Mount of Temptation tempted Him from His Cross by promising popularity through giving bread, working scientific marvels, or becoming a dictator. Satan did not confess the Divinity of Christ, since he prefaced each temptation with an "if". To the credit of Peter, he did confess Divinity. But along with this difference, there was this likeness: both Peter and Satan tempted Christ from His Cross and therefore from Redemption. Not to redeem was Satan's mind; to have the crown without the Cross was Satan's spirit. But, it was also Peter's. Therefore, Our Lord called him Satan. In an unguarded moment Peter had let Satan in his heart, thus becoming a stumbling stone on the road to Calvary. Peter thought it was unworthy of Christ to suffer; but to Our Lord such thoughts were human, carnal, and even Satanic. To all who would ever profess to be His followers He enumerated three conditions: "Let him renounce himself, take up his cross, and follow Me." The Cross was the reason of His coming; now He made it the earmark of His followers. He did not make Christianity easy; for He implied not only must there be a voluntary renouncement of everything that hindered likeness with Him, but also there must be the suffering, shame, and death of the Cross. Only those who were willing to be crucified with Him could be saved by the merits of His death and only those who bore a Cross could ever really understand Him.
