Prayer of Reparation for Offenses Made Against the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary

O Merciful Jesus, my King and my God, I worship You. O Blessed Mother, Mary Immaculate, I cherish you. For those who offer you insult, I offer you praise. For those who offer you mocking, I offer you honour. For those who offer you disbelief, I offer you trust. For those who offer you hate, I offer you love. For those who offer you cursing, I offer you blessing. For those who offer you ridicule, I offer you loving gazes. For those who offer you blasphemy, I offer you adoration. For those who offer you rebellion, I offer you obedience. For those who offer you indifference, I offer you devotion. For those who offer you obstinate pride, I offer you a contrite heart. For those who offer you scorn, I offer you fidelity. Soften the hearts of those who offend you, that they may come to know you and love you as you deserve. Make my heart more fervent so I may pray without ceasing for the conversion and salvation of souls. Amen.

Prayer for the Memorial of the Passion of St John the Baptist

O God, You raised up St John the Baptist to prepare a perfect people for Christ. Fill Your people with the joy of possessing His grace, and direct the minds of all the faithful in the way of peace and salvation. Grant that, as he was martyred for truth and justice, we may energetically profess our Faith in You, and lead others to the Way, the Truth, and Eternal Life. St John the Baptist, by the example of your life of penance and the power of your word, you drew the multitudes in order to dispose them to receive the Messiah worthily and to listen to His heavenly doctrine. Help us to follow your example of a holy life so we may bring many souls to God, especially those souls enveloped in the darkness of error and ignorance. Amen.

Unity Prayer (Elizabeth Kindelmann, T.O.Carm)

My adorable Jesus, May our feet journey together. May our hands gather in unity. May our hearts beat in unison. May our souls be in harmony. May our thoughts be as one. May our ears listen to the silence together. May our glances profoundly penetrate each other. May our lips pray together to gain mercy from the Eternal Father. Amen.

Reflection Pride it was that made Satan fall from heaven and man fall from grace. By its very nature such undue self-exaltation could be cured only by self-humiliation. That is why He who might have been born in a palace by the Tiber as befitting His Majesty as the Son of God, chose to appear before men in a stable as a child wrapped in swaddling bands.

Glory in humility for humility is truth and the path to true greatness. God resists the proud. The Pharisee who praised his own good deeds in the forefront of the temple is condemned; the poor publican in the rear of the temple, who calls himself a sinner and strikes his breast in a plea for pardon, goes to his house justified. The harlots and the publicans who are conscious of their sin enter the Kingdom of Heaven before the Scribes and the Pharisees, who are conscious of their righteousness. The Heavenly Father is thanked for concealing His Wisdom from the self-wise and the conscious intellectuals and for revealing it to the simple: 'I praise You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You hid these things from the wise and the learned and revealed them to these little ones.' I am sure that anyone who has had experience with the proud will bear witness to the truth of this statement: If my own eternal salvation were conditioned upon saving the soul of one self-wise man who prided himself on his learning, or one hundred of the most morally corrupt men and women of the streets, I should choose the easier task of converting the hundred. Nothing is more difficult to conquer in all the world than intellectual pride.

Humility is not an underestimation of our talents or gifts or powers, nor is it their exaggeration. Humility is truth or the recognition of gifts as gifts, faults as faults. Humility is dependence on God as pride is independence of Him. The humble soul, conscious of his dependence on God, is always the thankful soul. How many singers, orators, musicians, actors, doctors, professors ever think of thanking God for the special talents which made them outstanding in their profession? Out of the ten lepers who were made clean only one returned to give thanks. 'Were not ten made clean? Where are the other nine?', probably represents the proportion of the ungrateful who thank not because they are not humble. The humble soul will always avoid praising his own good works and thus making void the virtues of his deeds. The humble man, even though he be great in the eyes of the world, will esteem himself less than others, for he will always suspect that their internal greatness may far overreach his insignificant external greatness. Venerable Servant of God, Archbishop Fulton J Sheen
