"I was in prison and you visited me." (Mt 25:36) This year on Prison Sunday we pray for all those in prison, whether guilty or innocent, we also remember and pray for all prison chaplains who tirelessly work to carry out their mission for Christ.

Prayer to Endure Suffering (St Teresa of Avila)

Teach me, My God, to suffer in peace the afflictions which You send me that my soul may emerge from the crucible like gold, both brighter and purer, to find You within me. Trials like these, which at present seem unbearable, will eventually become light, and I shall be anxious to suffer again, if by so doing I can render You greater service. And however numerous may be my troubles and persecutions, they will all work together for my greater gain though I do not myself bear them as they should be borne, but in a way which is most imperfect. Amen.

NOVEMBER - MONTH OF THE HOLY SOULS

"It is a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead, that they may be loosed from their sins." 2 Maccabees 12:46
 Mass offering envelopes at church entrances.
 Please pray for the souls of all the deceased.

Immaculata Mission School: Next weekend we will have speakers at each Mass to advertise the youth retreat the Immaculate Community will be running in January 2023.

The Value of the Holy Mass

The Holy Mass is the highest form of worship, the unbloody renewal of the Sacrifice of the Cross. One Mass gives God more praise and thanksgiving, makes more atonement for sin and pleads more eloquently, than does the combined worship of all the souls in heaven, on earth and in purgatory. In the Sacrifice of the Altar, it is Jesus Christ Who is our High Priest, Mediator and Victim. Being God as well as Man, His prayers, merits, and offerings are infinite in value.

Why Should We Hear Holy Mass?

The Holy Mass is the best means we have to:

1. Give glory to the Heavenly Father.
2. Thank Him for all His blessings.
3. Make reparation for all our sins.
4. Obtain all the blessings we desire.
5. Release souls from Purgatory; to shorten our own time there.
6. Preserve us from all danger to soul and body.
7. Intercede for us at the Judgment Seat of God.
8. Be consoled at the hour of death, for at that time its memory will be our greatest consolation.
9. Understand better the sublimity of the Passion of Christ, and to increase our love for Him.

Reflection Have you ever noticed in the Apostles' Creed how quickly we pass over the earthly life of our Lord? Born, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, rose from the dead. We say nothing about the beatitudes, nothing about miracles. Just he was born, suffered and died, and rose again. Just those three. That's all there is in life. We're born; the earthly life is passed over, because all that matters concerning an earthly life is whether we are doing the will of God. And then, resurrection. First, we are born to Christ in baptism. Remember that our Lord was born into a sinful, sorrowful humanity. If we follow Him as a rule of life, we are born into that kind of a world: the poor, the afflicted, the sick, the ignorant. That is why Jesus' birth was in a stable. He identified with the poor. Here is the second great commandment: love your neighbour. The fundamental reason for loving our neighbour is because we're born into the same humanity that our Lord was born into, and we must help redeem it. Second, He suffered and was crucified. We suffer. Our Lord said, 'In this world you will have tribulation.' We are given crosses. We bear the cross for Him and with Him, recalling always what He did for us. And finally, He rose from the dead. Scripture says of our Blessed Lord, 'having joy set before Him, He endured the cross.' That means that in any kind of trial which we have, there should be a hidden gladness. Why? Because we're assured of the resurrection. Even though God does send us some kind of trial, if we've borne His cross, we can be absolutely sure of the crown.

Venerable Servant of God, Archbishop Fulton J Sheen
