ALTAR SOCIETY ROSTER FOR JANUARY
Ann Tubb & Rhonda McGregor

Lamb of God

The Agnus Dei is sung during the fraction, the breaking of the consecrated Host. St John Chrysostom preached of how the fraction symbolised the Passion of Christ: "What Christ did not suffer on the Cross, He suffers in the sacrifice for thee." The hymn itself invokes Christ and recalls His sacrificial death with overtones of a hymn of victory of the triumphal Lamb. This belief is then emphasised again when the priest holds up the fractured Host and says, "Behold the Lamb of God, behold Him who takes away the sins of the world, blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb." As we celebrate the mysteries of the Mass, we look to the Lamb who suffered, died, and rose for our salvation. We must gather around the altar of the Lamb, offering to Him our own hearts and pledging to be His servants, so that we may welcome Him and become wedded to Him in the Holy Eucharist.

O Lamb of God Prayer (St Irenaeus of Lyons)

O Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world, look upon us and have mercy upon us; You who art Yourself both victim and Priest, Yourself both Reward and Redeemer, keep safe from all evil those whom You have redeemed, O Saviour of the world. Amen.

Safety Plan: If unwell, please stay at home. If you prefer to receive Holy Communion on the tongue, please wait until all other parishioners have been before approaching the altar.

Feast of Santo Niño (The Infant Jesus)

O Holy Child Jesus, You shed Your blessings on whoever invokes Your name, look kindly on us who kneel humbly before Your holy image, and hear our prayers. We commend to Your mercy the many poor and needy people who trust in Your Divine Heart. Lay Your all powerful hand upon them and help them in their needs. Lay Your hand upon the sick, to cure them and sanctify their suffering; upon those in distress, to console them; upon sinners, to draw them into the light of Your divine grace upon all those who, stricken with grief and suffering, turn trustingly to You for loving help. Lay Your hand also upon all of us and give us Your blessing. O little King, grant the treasures of Your divine mercy to all the world, and keep us now and always in the grace of Your love. Amen. Holy Infant Jesus of Prague, Bless and protect us. Amen.

A Prayer to the Creator

Lord God, Father of our human family, You created all human beings equal in dignity: pour forth into our hearts a fraternal spirit and inspire in us a dream of renewed encounter, dialogue, justice and peace. Move us to create healthier societies and a more dignified world, a world without hunger, poverty, violence and war. May our hearts be open to all the peoples and nations of the earth. May we recognise the goodness and beauty that You have sown in each of us, and thus forge common projects, and shared dreams. Amen.

We pray for the repose of the soul of Cardinal George Pell who provided strong and clear leadership within the Catholic Church in Australia, as Archbishop of Melbourne and Archbishop of Sydney and as a member of the Bishops Conference for more than 25 years. May God grant him eternal rest and bestow comfort to all his grieving family and friends.
