Prayer to Our Lady of the Holy Rosary

Queen of the Holy Rosary, inspire my heart with a sincere love of this devotion, in order that by meditating on the Mysteries of our Redemption which are recalled in it, I may be enriched with its fruits and obtain peace for the world. ALTAR SOCIETY ROSTER FOR OCTOBER

Marriage and Family Sunday / Week

We pray for God's blessing on all those joined in the Sacrament of Marriage and their families. May each husband and wife imitate the virtues shown in the blessed example of the Virgin Mary and St Joseph, and may each child follow in the footsteps of Jesus in their humility, love and obedience. We also pray for our parish family. May we ever remember that we are all one in the body of Christ.

Family Prayer to the Sacred Heart

Sacred Heart of Jesus, we entrust our family to You. Look down upon us and reveal to us the treasures of love, goodness, and grace in Your Heart. Forgive our sins and fortify our weakness, that we may serve You faithfully as You deserve. These favours we ask for ourselves and for every family in our neighbourhood and homeland. Heart of Jesus, pierced by a soldier's lance on Calvary, be our refuge in life and our gateway to Paradise. Amen.

Feast Day of St Luke, Evangelist - 18 Oct Patron Saint of physicians and surgeons

Almighty God, Who did inspire Thy servant Saint Luke the physician to set forth in the Gospel the love and healing power of Thy Son: Graciously continue in Thy Church the love and power to heal, to the praise and glory of Thy Name; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord, Who lives and reigns with Thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

World Mission Sunday: Next weekend we will have a special collection for the World Mission Appeal. Envelopes will be provided. All donations will be gratefully accepted.

Praying the Rosary

During the month of October (being the month of the Most Holy Rosary) the Holy Rosary will be prayed half an hour before each weekend Mass. There are pamphlets available that provide a step-by-step guide on how to pray the Rosary at the paper table, along with free Rosary beads.

Food for thought

"For many are called, but few are chosen."
What we hear here is quite scary. By faith we have all been called to come to the wedding of the Heavenly King, we believe in the mystery of His Incarnation and we profess it, we take part in the banquet of the Divine Word; but behold, in the day of judgment, the King of righteousness shall come in. We know that we are called, but we do not know if we are elected. Each of us must therefore humble ourselves all the more deeply as he does not know if he is elected. Indeed, there are some who do not even begin to do good; others, who have started well, do not persevere. One leads a disorderly existence for most of his life, but returns shortly before the end of his life by the tears of severe penance; another leads a life of elected, and yet comes to go astray in evil shortly before the end of his life. One begins his life well, and finishes better still; another throws himself headlong into evil from his earliest youth, and dies after never ceasing to become worse in the same disturbances. Everyone must therefore fear for himself with all the more anxiety because he does not know how much time he has left; for it is something that must be repeated often, without ever forgetting it: "Many are called, but few are chosen."
St Gregory the Great, Homily 38, 10 Feb 592.
